Terms and conditions:

The Mosquito Point changing room design competition runs from 13 December 2017 until 28 February 2018. You may enter as many times as you like. Entries must be a design that can be recreated by Horizons' chosen designers to print on the changing room. Small adjustments may be made to the winning design to accommodate this. By entering this competition you are giving Horizons permission to use your design and name for future publicity and promotional purposes. Entries that incorporate the recent Whanganui River settlement and what the river means to the designer will be considered favourably. The winning entry will be chosen by Horizons Regional Council. No correspondence will be entered into following the prize draw.
