Candidates

Q7 I want to be a candidate in these elections. What do I need to do?

Ans You must be a New Zealand Citizen and your name must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand).

You will need to have two people (nominators) registered in the area of the election you are standing for to nominate you – eg if you stand for the XYZ Constituency, they will need to reside within that Constituency. (Please note the candidate does not need to reside in the constituency in which they are standing but will need to disclose that fact on his/her nomination form which will be shown in his/her Candidate Profile Statement).

The nominators must also be on the Parliamentary electoral roll at the address they are listed on the nomination paper (which must be in the area that they are nominating the person for).

You cannot be interested in Council contracts of $25,000 (GST incl) or over unless prior approval is sought.

Q8 When do nominations open?

Ans Nominations open on Friday, 19 July 2019 and close at 12 noon on Friday, 16 August 2019.

Q9 How much will it cost me to stand?

Ans You will need to pay a deposit of $200 GST inclusive. The deposit applies to each issue (election) you stand for.

Your nomination must be received by close of nominations at 12 noon on 16 August 2019.

If you pay the deposit by cheque and it is dishonoured after nominations close, your nomination will not be accepted.

If you poll greater than 25% of the lowest polling successful candidate (for FPP elections) you will receive your deposit back on receipt of the Electoral Expenses Form.

Would you like me to send out a nomination form?

- Q10 What qualifications and experience do I need? Ans Nothing formal. Elected members come from all walks of life and generally have a will/desire to serve the community.
- However the following skills would be helpful if you are elected: time management, communication, listening, relationship building, influencing and negotiating, media skills.
- Q11 Does a criminal record affect a person standing as a candidate? Ans No, not at all for city, district and regional council elections.
- Q12 How long is the term of the elected member? Ans Three years
- Q13 Do I need to be resident in the city, district or region I am standing for? Ans No, but you must be on the Parliamentary Roll (anywhere in New Zealand) and provide proof that you are a New Zealand Citizen.
- Q14 How many offices can I stand for? Ans You cannot stand for both a regional council and one of its constituent district or city councils.
- Q15 I am a serving Police Officer. Can I stand for council and continue to work as a Police Officer? Ans Yes. There are no restrictions on police officers standing for local authority elections, apart from the normal eligibility criteria.

Q16 How much can I spend on my campaign?

Constituency	No. of Members	Estimated Population [†]	Expenditure
Horowhenua–Kairanga	2	40,300	$30,000
Manawatu-Rangitikei	2	37,400	$20,000
Palmerston North	4	87,300	$50,000
Ruapehu	1	12,900	$14,000
Tararua	1	17,800	$14,000
Whanganui	2	44,500	$30,000

Ans All candidates are required to lodge an electoral donations and expenses return within 55 days after the day on which the successful candidates are declared to be elected (Public Notice of Final Results). If a candidate is outside NZ on this day, the return must be filed within 76 days after election result day. If this is not done the non return will be advised to the NZ Police. This return needs to be made before a candidate nomination deposit is refunded.

Enrolment

Q17 Where can I view the electoral roll that will be used for this election?

Ans Public libraries, or at city and district council offices.

Q18 How do I enrol to vote in these elections?

Ans If you are on the Parliamentary Electoral roll at an address in the constituency you want to vote in then you will automatically appear on the roll that is used for these elections.

If you don't know, see Q17 and Q21.

If you are not enrolled, you need to complete an enrolment form for this. You can either:

- you can enrol online at www.elections.org.nz
- ring 0800 36 76 56
- send your name and address to Freetext 3676
- download a form at www.elections.org.nz
- pick up a form at your local electorate office, city/district council office, or any New Zealand Post Shop
- contact your local city or district council

If you own a property in this district and it is not your main residence you may be able to enrol as a Ratepayer elector. Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.

Q19 I am a student and spend my time in different places. Where should I enrol?

Ans You should enrol where you spend the greater part of your time.

Q20 I am a New Zealand Māori, do I need to enrol on the Māori roll?

Ans Not necessarily. If you are enrolling for the first time you can decide whether you want to go on the Māori Electoral roll or the General Electoral roll by signing the appropriate panel on the Parliamentary Elector Enrolment form.

However, if you have already made that choice you will have to wait until the next Māori Option period to change, which occurs following the next census likely in 2023. The last Maori Option period was in 2018.

Q21 How do I know whether I am enrolled?	Ans You can check your enrolment status on www.elections.org.nz . The Electoral Commission will be undertaking a roll update campaign in early July 2019 for the Parliamentary Electoral roll which forms the basis of our roll for the local authority election. If you do not receive a letter in the post during late June/early July 2019, the chances are you are not enrolled or your details are incorrect.
Q22 I turn 18 on Election Day. Can I vote?	Ans Yes, but you need to make sure you have enrolled which you can do provisionally from the age of 17 and it automatically changes when you turn 18. You will also need to apply for a special vote. Please contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q23 We own a business in your area and pay rates, but we don't live in your area – do we get a say in the local elections?	Ans Yes, subject to being eligible to become enrolled as a ratepayer elector and becoming enrolled. Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q24 I own a property in the district but it is not my fulltime residence. How do I get on the Ratepayer Electoral Roll?	Ans Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Voting
Q25 Is it a postal vote and will I be sent my voting documents in the mail?	Ans All local authority elections will be conducted by postal vote. Voting documents will be delivered by NZ Post between Friday, 20 September 2019 and Wednesday, 25 September 2019.
Q26 I got my voting documents but my partner didn't receive theirs.	Ans Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q27 I didn't get my voting documents so I called and got a special vote. Now I have two documents which one should I use?	Ans Use the original and destroy the special vote, or contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q28 I received voting documents for (children, parent) and have Power of Attorney for them, can I vote for them?	Ans No – Power of Attorney does not apply to voting on behalf of that person.

Q29 What should I do with the documents?	Ans If they are overseas, you could fast post them to the person or destroy them if that is not practicable. If they are for an elderly parent who is unable to vote please destroy them by ripping/cutting them up.
Q30 I received voting documents that do not belong to me and I don't know these people or where they have gone.	Ans Write GNA (Gone No Address) on the envelope and put them back in the mail.
Q31 What is that barcode that I can see through the return envelope or on the front of the voting document?	Ans It is a legal requirement to scan the barcode number to mark the Electoral roll that you have voted so we can ensure that we do not receive two votes from the same person.
Q32 How do you ensure the secrecy of my vote?	Ans Envelopes containing a voting document cannot be opened until there is a JP present. The JP is required to sign off that the processes used by the Electoral Officer met the legal requirements. The voter's name is not on the voting document. When the envelope is opened the only thing the Electoral Officer is looking for is that the vote for each election is valid. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This means that for FPP they are making sure that the voter's intention is clear and they have not ticked or marked more than the number of candidates that they are electing. • For STV it is to make sure that no preference numbers are used more than once or omitted, eg, 1, 2, 3, 3, 4, 5, and that there is always a number one marked against a candidate's name. It should be like this: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, etc, in numerical order up to as many preferences the voter wishes to vote for. Explanations of FPP and STV can be found in Q49 and Q50.
Q33 Do I have to vote? I don't know any of these candidates	Ans No you don't have to vote. You also don't have to vote for all candidates or for all elections. But your vote is important because the people elected will be responsible for making decisions about what happens in your community for the next three years. To help you get to know about the candidates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There may be candidate meetings being held in each area if you wish to go and hear what policies the different candidates are advocating for.

- Additionally there is a candidate profile booklet that comes out with the voting documents in which there is a photo and a statement from candidates. This information will also be available on Horizons website.
- Candidates may have their own website page, social media page(s), advertise in local newspapers or send out information to letterboxes in your area.
- Local newspapers are likely to cover information about the election.

Q34 Do I have to post my voting document back?	Ans	You can post it but make sure you have them in the mail by Wednesday, 9 October 2019 to make sure they get back to us in time (by 12 noon Saturday, 12 October 2019). However, you can also deliver it to the voting boxes at the city or district council until 12 noon Saturday, 12 October)
Q35 I have lost my return envelope.	Ans	You can use an envelope of your own and put the return address and Freepost number on it. OR contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q36 I am on the Unpublished Parliamentary roll and I want a special vote please.	Ans	Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q37 I didn't receive my voting paper, how do I obtain a special vote?	Ans	Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q38 I spoiled my voting documents / I have made a mistake on my documents. What can I do?	Ans	If you can amend it so that your voting intention is clear then do so and initial the changes. or Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer so they can issue you with another voting document.
Q39 Where can I have a special vote?	Ans	Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q40 I am going away and will not be here when the voting documents are posted out.	Ans	Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.

Q41 Do I have to vote for all the candidates for any issue? If I don't vote for all the candidates or all the issues on my voting document, will all my votes be informal?	Ans Under FPP you can vote for as many candidates as you want but not more than the number of positions available on the voting document. So if you are electing 5 councillors then you can vote for up to five candidates. Remember for FPP you tick the candidates you want to elect.
	With STV you can vote for all or as many candidates as you wish but these must be in order of your preference and no number can be repeated. Remember for STV you rank the candidates you want to elect from number 1 onwards.
	You can decide not to vote for one or more of the different elections on your voting document. This does not invalidate all your other votes.
Explanations of FPP and STV can be found in Q49 and Q50
Q42 Why can't I vote for a certain candidate who is standing for a different constituency?	Ans You can only vote for the elections relevant to the area in which you live and are an elector of. You cannot vote for a candidate for the same region who is standing in another constituency because you are not an elector of that constituency.
Q43 My husband's paper and mine are different. He has more/less things to vote for. His list of candidates is different to mine?	Ans Horizons is using random name order on the voting documents? This could explain why the list looks different; otherwise contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q44 I have received two voting documents	Ans Contact your city or district council Electoral Officer.
Q45 Do all the staff working on the election know who I voted for?	Ans No, your vote remains secret under the required roll scrutiny and counting procedures.
Q46 Can I help someone fill out their voting documents?	Ans Under the Local Electoral Act 2001, you cannot interfere or influence any person as to how they can vote. If authorised by a voter who is physically impaired, visually impaired or for whom English is a second language, a person can assist them to vote as directed by the voter. An authorisation to do this should be completed (Local Electoral Regulations # 34).

Q47 What happens to all the voting documents after the elections?	Ans They are delivered to the District Court and kept for 21 days so that the Court can access them should there be any application for recount or petition for inquiry. After 21 days the court is responsible for destroying them
Q48 Do I get a vote for the DHB?	Ans Yes, if you are a resident elector. Ratepayer electors cannot vote for DHB elections. Please note that DHB elections are conducted under STV and so you will exercise your vote by ranking your preferred candidates.
Q49 What is STV and how do I vote in an STV election?	Ans STV stands for Single Transferable Vote. STV is a preferential system of voting where you can rank as few or as many candidates as you like. It is a single vote which can be transferred between candidates to ensure the vote contributes to the election of at least one candidate and is not wasted. If a popular candidate does not need all the votes he or she receives, a proportion is transferred to the voter's next preference. On the other hand, if a candidate is not popular and receives few votes, those votes are transferred to a voter's next preference. For more information about STV go to www.stv.govt.nz. To exercise a STV vote, start by writing the number 1 in the box next to the candidate you most want to be elected. Write the number 2 next to your second most preferred candidate and so on 3, 4, 5 etc. You can write as many preferences or as few as you like up to however many candidates are standing for that election. You must write the number 1 for your vote to be counted. Do not write the same number more than once, eg, 1, 2, 3, 3, 4, 5, and do not miss a number from your preferences, eg, 1, 2, 4, 5, 6.
Q50 What about FPP?	Ans This is the First Past the Post voting system. The candidate or candidates that get the most votes win(s). You should mark those you want to vote for with a tick in the circle. Do not vote for more than the number of candidates shown in the instructions.

Election Results

Q51 When will we know the results of the election?	Ans Progress and preliminary results will be announced as soon as possible after 12 noon on Saturday, 12 October 2019. The official results will be announced when the final count is complete and special votes have been checked, which will be between Thursday 17 October 2019 – Wednesday 23 October 2019.
Q52 How will I find out?	The Candidates Ans Will be advised as soon as possible after Preliminary results are known. This may be by email or phone from the Electoral Officer or Deputy Electoral Officer. The Voters Ans Preliminary Results will be released to the media and placed on our website as soon as possible after noon on Saturday, 12 October – www.horizons.govt.nz .
Q53 What do I need to do if I want to challenge the results of the election?	Ans Contact the Horizons' Electoral Officer.

Members

Q54 When do elected members take up their roles?	Ans Elected members take up office the day after the official result has been declared by public notice. However, they cannot act until they have sworn the oath of office which is usually at the first meeting of council. This first meeting is usually held as soon as practicable after the final election results are known.
Q55 Who are elected members responsible to?	Ans Ultimately the elected members' final responsibility is to the local community. The Minister of Local Government and the Auditor-General do have a role in ensuring that councils follow the law.
Q56 Do elected members get paid and if so how much?	Ans This is set by the Remuneration Authority. Some expenses are also reimbursed. See the Candidate Information Book for more details.
Q57 Would being an elected member take up much time?	Ans The time commitment varies depending on the role and the size of the constituency you are representing.

Q58 How many elected members are there?

Ans Twelve (12) elected members.

Complaints

Q59 I have a complaint about Electoral signage?

Ans Contact the city or district council Electoral Officer for that Council's Signage Policy, or the Horizons' Electoral Officer.

The signs don't have the required authorisation on them.

The signs have been pulled over.

The signs are bigger than they should be.

What locations can signs be erected?

When can they be erected and when must they be pulled down?
